

KAPPA KAPPA KAPPA, BETA GAMMA CHAPTER

LOCAL SCHOLARSHIP GUIDELINES

Statement of Purpose

Tri Kappa is a unique philanthropic organization because it exists only within the boundaries of the state of Indiana. The organization was founded in 1901 in Indianapolis by a group of seven young ladies at the Girls' Classical School founded by May Wright Sewall. Each was to begin a chapter in her hometown. From these humble beginnings, Tri Kappa has thrived to 147 active chapters and 123 associate chapters with almost 10,000 members. The object of this organization is to bring women into close, unselfish relationship for the promotion of charity, culture and education.

Mishawaka's local chapter, beta Gamma, created this scholarship program to foster the education of local students planning to attend local colleges and universities that include but are not limited to; Bethel College, Indiana University South Bend, Ivy Tech College, St. Mary's College, the University of Notre Dame, and Brown Mackie College.
